Social distancing will be observed and some restrictions to the church building may apply. We will continue to livestream worship at 8:30 and 11:15 a.m. for those who are unable to attend. Please, if you have a compromised immune system, or if you have other concerns about attending church in person at this time, do take necessary precautions and worship from home. Livestream services are provided for this very purpose. A link to the service can be found on our public Facebook page, and also at <https://www.facebook.com/flcharlotte/live> and will also be available after the livestream has ended.
